Subject: Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write the present letter for Eric Lambure, who interned our Sales & Relationship Management department at Clearstream Banking S.A in Luxembourg, as a valuable member. During the past 6 months Eric surprised and convinced me with his curious nature, his deep analytical skills, and his refreshing collaborative spirit.

He demonstrated a strong desire to learn and actively sought out opportunities to grasp financial concepts and new information. Eric was a valuable asset to our team, he manifested involvement in the missions we entrusted him, and presented his findings in a clear and concise manner.

He participated to a positive and collaborative environment, implicating himself in projects and offering contributions during team discussions. Eric is a proficient individual, his motivation combined with his interest in the field allowed him to apply his academics knowledge to practical tasks.

During his time with us, he particularly excelled in finding active solutions in the KYC process and successfully supporting the team's commercial activities.

I highly recommend Eric for any job opportunity he will encounter in the future.

Please feel free to contact me at sascha.zisel@clearstream.com if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Sascha Zisel
